

Transgender Romance 2 - Love and Work (Monica Transsexual Romance) (Pearls Universe Book 11)

The backstory of Monica, the center of this Universe of characters from Ivy to Pearl to Denise and Eileen. Monica was lucky having supportive parents who supported her early on in life with the secret she held close to her heart. Working as a computer programmer in the 90s the world was a different place. Coming out was a death sentence for her career. Monica waited until her buyout until she started her transition. She lost some friends and made new ones learning a lot about people in the process. After a few failed relationships Monica was resigned to never meeting anyone until the night she met the love of her life Jason. The quickly fell in love and Monica soon decided to expand her homemaker skills by going to baking school. You will find out how her LGBT-friendly business was formed. Now at seven locations this successful TRANSGENDER BUSINESSWOMAN has a lot of decisions to make. To franchise or not to franchise? How quickly does Monica want to jump from seven to fifteen locations across the city? What happens when the shore house they stayed at when they were dating comes up for sale? So many options and decisions to make with her loving partner, Jason, by her side. Most importantly, they have to set their fantasy baseball lineup together.
