

The Lair Of The White Worm

Something evil is lurking under the ground in Dianas Grove. Summoned by his great-uncle, Richard Salton, Adam Salton travels to Lesser Hill, Mercia, only to find himself surrounded by evil. Be it the Castra Regiss mesmeric assault on Lilla Watford, a childs mysterious wounds, the lady Arabella Marchs murder of Oolanga, or the terrifying white worm that dwells in a pit in Arabellas house, Adam must work quickly to save himself and the other inhabitants of the area. Also known as The Garden of Evil, The Lair of the White Worm was originally published in 1911, just one year before Bram Stokers death. It has been adapted for film.
