

Backfire

Revenge. Blackmail. Murder. Sometimes they add up to justice. THEN Its 1963. A beautiful young girl dies in the middle of an abortion on a cold table in a motel room. The cover-up is quick, quiet, and for almost thirty years worth every penny. NOW Its 1991. At the dawn of a presidential campaign, the secret buried a generation back suddenly surfaces. To one man it means enormous profit and incalculable risk. To a second man it means solving one lethal mystery, only to uncover another as close as his own flesh and blood. BACKFIRE When the stakes are high, there are no loyalties and no rules even for top-level U.S. government agents. Especially for them.
