

Burning Daylight: A Jack London Western Trilogy

TRILOGY - Three of American author Jack London's bestselling Gold Rush books are bound together in this Kindle edition: Burning Daylight, The Call of the Wild, and White Fang. Burning Daylight is set in 1893 in the Yukon Territory and the hero (nicknamed Burning Daylight) is a high-flying entrepreneur Alaskan Gold Rush. The Call of the Wild (1903) is another Gold Rush tale set in the Yukon. Buck, a domesticated dog, has been kidnapped from his California ranch and sold into service as a sled dog in Alaska. He must fight for his survival and eventually succumb to his wilder instincts to emerge as a leader. (Cover Photo Courtesy: Louise Nelson, London, England) White Fang (1906) is often read in conjunction with The Call of the Wild as it is also set during the Klondike Gold Rush in the Yukon. The plot is reversed, however, when a wild dog known as White Fang becomes domesticated. The story is told through the eyes of White Fang and involves his understanding of the human race. White Fang has been adapted into a Hollywood film many times. About The Author American writer John Griffith London (1876-1916) was a bestselling author and one of the few celebrity writers to make a large amount from popular novels including The Call of the Wild and short stories To Build a Fire. He also wrote about the San Francisco Bay area in The Sea Wolf, another best-seller. London advocated socialism and wrote several books involving unionization and socialism including his dystopian novel The Iron Heel, his non-fiction expose The People of the Abyss, and The War of the Classes. To prepare for his novel Call of the Wild, London spent almost a year in the Yukon. It was, arguably, his greatest success.
