

Fiends

The world thought he was just one more crazy old man; and so many times he himself hoped that was true. Arne Horsfall, a veteran resident of a Tennessee mental institution, had hidden silently behind its wall all his life. Unable to speak, Arne holds the incredible truth about the overnight disappearance of the entire population of Dante Mill almost a century ago. Only his haunting sketches of an ominous hairless woman with blazing blue eyes reveal how tortured his soul has become. Released into the innocent hands of Marjory and Enid Waller, a voice from the dead past beckons to Arne. The grisly apparition of his drawings once again invades his life, and the fiends from hell stir restlessly in their slumber. By the light of thousands of giant luna moths, they are hurled into a horrifying crisis that will change their lives forever.
