

THE RED ONE - JACK LONDON (WITH NOTES)(BIOGRAPHY)(ILLUSTRATED)

The Red One is a short story by Jack London. It was first published in the October 1918 issue of The Cosmopolitan, two years after London's death. The story is told from the perspective of a scientist called Bassett, who is on an expedition in the jungle of Guadalcanal to collect butterflies. The Red One of the title refers to a giant red sphere, of apparently extraterrestrial origin, that the headhunting natives worship as their god and to which they perform human sacrifices. Bassett becomes obsessed with the Red One and in the end is sacrificed himself. Complete this volume two more stories: The Hussy and The Princess.
