

Emma (Annotated)

This unique version also includes bonus annotations:- Biography of the author- Historical context of the book- Literary critique Jane Austen was born on 16 December 1775; her parents were George and Cassandra Austen and her sister Cassandra and she had six brothers, passed away when she was only 42 years of age on 18 July 1817. Austen had a thought before she started her book Emma. She decided to create a heroine that no one else besides herself may like and she introduced the character Emma as Emma Woodhouse whom was rich, handsome and clever to her readers. The character turned out to be a person that loved to do matchmaking (which normally fails) and she used to meddle into the lives of others
