Butterflies, butterflies everywhere! For Americas growing (and passionate) legions of butterflyers, Audubon Butterflies is the next best thing to hiking meadow and field with binoculars in hand. Here are hundreds of the worlds butterflies, beautifully photographed in full color. A gorgeous blue Sonoran on fiddleneck flowers. The distinctively patterned Cramers Eighty-eight. The aptly named Clearwing. And you may have to look twice at an amazingly leaflike Brimstone. Plus Painted Ladies, Clippers, Coppers, Hairstreaks, and more. Each months spread has a large photograph at the top and smaller images in the grid below. Text by Kenn Kaufman provides a wealth of information about butterfly species, habitats, and lifestyle.
