

Gobseck (French Edition)

La scene debute dans le salon de Madame de Grandlieu, en conversation avec un ami de la famille, lavoue Maitre Derville. Lavoue entend, pendant la conversation de Mme de Grandlieu avec sa fille Camille, que celle-ci est amoureuse du jeune Ernest de Restaud, fils dAnastasia de Restaud, nee Goriot. Mme de Grandlieu desapprouve cet amour : la mere dErnest est dependriere, enlisee dans une relation illegitime avec Maxime de Trailles, pour lequel elle gaspille sa fortune. Derville intervient en faveur de Camille : il demontre quErnest sest vu attribuer depuis peu lintegralite de lheritage familial. Ce recit, qui constitue une mise en abime dun type humain du monde balzacien, met en lumiere les personnages de Jean-Esther van Gobseck, usurier, et de Maitre Derville, avocat en debut de carriere. Ces deux personnages, qui jouent un role essentiel dans ce roman, reparaisent dans lensemble de la Comedie humaine, soit sous forme de devotion : Gobseck, soit en personne : Maitre Derville, que lon retrouve dans Le Colonel Chabert, Splendeurs et miseres des courtisanes et dans de nombreux autres volumes de La Comedie humaine. Il fait partie, dans les personnages de la Comedie humaine, des Gens de robe honnetes.
