

High Society Gangster II: The Caprese Family (The Caprese Crime Series Book 2)

The complex and controversial life of Geno Caprese continues to unfold in this mind blowing second installment of the Caprese Crime Series. With his chief nemesis, Nesta Clarke, now out of the picture, Geno has further solidified his status as the most powerful underworld figure in Baltimore City. He stands alone to rule the streets with an iron fist. His string of good luck has also extended over into his legitimate endeavors as well. The Caprese Foundation, his brainchild, has developed into an even more formidable player in corporate America with a diversified group of businesses under its wing. Things are going well for Geno on all fronts, however, just when he thinks he can relax and enjoy a drama-free life with his family, the drama seems to find him. Out of nowhere, he faces a near death encounter with Jericho Jones, a highly skilled assassin with an axe to grind. He also has to deal with his own personal demons which stem from his now distant relationship with his father, Leonardo. Adding fuel to the fire, there are other unseen forces hard at work plotting his demise. Geno is in a race against time and fate to save his own life and to maintain his elite status in the two vastly different worlds he lives in. He will have to use every ounce of his street smarts and clever business acumen to weave his way through this twisted maze. Geno will encounter tragedies and triumphs along his journey to survive the madness. Thomas Long has crafted yet another literary masterpiece where emotions run high and the lines are blurred between good and evil. The outcome of this story will shock and astound the readers and leave them wanting more.
