

Box of Oxen

Novella; near-future science-fiction/thriller Unless the Israeli government and the Palestinian Authority agree to enter into a binding peace agreement, an unhinged Russian physicist has threatened to set off a nuclear device somewhere in Jerusalem. The Israelis think its a Palestinian trick, the Palestinians think its a ploy of the Israelis, and both sides are running out of time. Meanwhile two children, an Israeli girl and a Palestinian boy, just hope to be left to themselves to find their own way in life. (Note: this is a 20,000 word novella)
