

The Empty Chair

A collection of emotive poetry based on the subject of bullying. Featuring poems told from the viewpoints of victims, family, friends and bystanders, each verse tells a sometimes harsh and stark story of the pain and suffering that bullying can cause, and the efforts that we should take to put an end to hate crime. With information and web links to the UK charity Beatbullying.org, people affected by bullying have the resources to find out what support there is for them, or how they can help others.
