

Tucson Twosome (GUNN Book 17)

THE GIRLS ARE BEAUTIFUL. THE APACHES DEADLY AND GUNN IS CAUGHT BETWEEN THEM! DEAD CENTER The stagecoach out of El Paso rumbled west, carrying a load of new Spencer repeating rifles, two dangerously beautiful young women, and Gunn. It would have been an enjoyable trip except for the Apache war party! Gunn and the two women survived the attack, and by the time they near Tucson both have had their way with him lovely, if hazardous interlude, since the heavily armed Indians are still around and ready to go off any minute. It doesn't take Gunn long to learn the threat the Apaches pose. They were planning to hit every ranch in the area, and with the stolen Spencers they were unbeatable. The hard-riding Gunn found himself dead center the target of the Apaches, the Cavalry, and the Tucson twosome. And it would take some fancy shooting and smooth talking for Gunn to come out of it in one piece.
