As a child my favourite books were Little Women and Anne of Green Gables. Interestingly the common thread in both books was that the struggling authors were both given the same advice. Write about what you know. I have taken this advice for myself. This is what I know: that life is a struggle; life is hard and often things don't happen when we would like them to, if they happen at all. There is something else that I know: God is faithful, God is good and He will give you the strength to get through life as it is. We all have hard times, times of feeling blue and down in the dumps but even there, if we are looking at God our Father, He will show us in little ways that He cares for each of us individually. I don't want you to think that God will help you in the same way as He has me, but He will reach out to you if you ask Him. He knows your problems, learning style and circumstances, which are different to mine, and He will reach out to you in a way that is best suited to you. So why write this book? I want to share the blessing of a God that cared and encouraged me. I want to share what God taught me in the little things in life that are easy to overlook. I hope this book will inspire you to look up and see the majesty of our wonderful God. Enjoy.
