

Tolstoy's Hidden Stories: Meditations on a Serf Woman

On the eve of the emancipation of serfs in Imperial Russia, Count Leo Tolstoy found himself in love with a serf woman on his estate. This premarital romance, which resulted in the birth of Tolstoy's first child, remained in Tolstoy's memories for a lifetime. This volume presents a literary portrait of Aksinia Bazykina, Tolstoy's peasant interest, as featured in three fictional stories, An Idyll, Tikhon and Malanya, and The Devil. The volume also contains a new translation of My Life, the first autobiography of a serf woman in Russia, which was originally edited by Tolstoy himself.
