Margery Allingham stands out like a shining light. Agatha Christie Look to the Lady Finding himself the victim of a botched kidnapping attempt, Val Gyrrh suspects that he might be in a spot of trouble. Unexpected news to him but not to the mysterious Mr Campion, who reveals that the ancient Chalice entrusted to Vals family is being targeted by a ruthless ring of thieves. Fleeing London for the supposed safety of Suffolk, Val and Campion come face to face with events of a perilous and puzzling nature Campion might be accustomed to outwitting criminal minds, but can he foil supernatural forces?

Police at the Funeral The tranquility of Cambridge is punctured when Cousin Andrew of the illustrious Faraday family disappears without a trace. No time is wasted in summoning Albert Campion and his sleuthing skills away from the bustle of Piccadilly to investigate but little does he expect to be greeted by a band of eccentric relatives all at daggers with each other. Soon there are as many dead bodies as there are red herrings, and Campion must uncover the secrets of the Faraday dynasty before another victim falls Sweet Danger Nestled along the Adriatic coastline, the kingdom of Averna has suddenly and suspiciously become the hottest property in Europe, and Albert Campion is given the task of recovering the long-missing proofs of ownership. His mission takes him from the French Riviera to the sleepy village of Pontisbright, where he meets the flame-haired Amanda Fitton. Her family claim to be the rightful heirs to the principality, and insist on joining Campions quest. Unfortunately for them, a criminal financier and his heavies are also on the trail the clock is ticking for Campion and his cohorts to outwit the thugs and solve the mystery of Averna.
