This eBooks includes 19 classic western novels by Zane Grey. Pearl Zane Grey (January 31, 1872 - October 23, 1939) was an American author best known for his popular adventure novels and stories that were a basis for the Western genre in literature and the arts; he idealized the American frontier. Riders of the Purple Sage (1912) was his best-selling book. In addition to the commercial success of his printed works, they had second lives and continuing influence when adapted as films and television productions. As of 2012, 112 films, two television episodes, and a television series, Dick Powells Zane Grey Theater, had been made that were based loosely on Greys novels and short stories. It is very easy to navigate this eBook. There is an Active table of contents for each book and one global table of contents.
