

Wee Willie Winkie, Under the Deodars: The Phantom Rickshaw, and Other Stories (Classic Reprint)

The Education of Otis Yeere I In the pleasant orchard-closes God bless all our gains, say we ;B ut May God bless all our losses, Better suits with our degree. The Lost Bower. This is the history of a failure ;but the woman who failed said that it might be an instructive tale to put into print for the benefit of the younger generation. The younger generation does not want instruction, being perfectly willing to instruct if any one will listen to it. None the less, here begins the story where every right-minded story should begin, that is to say at Simla, where all things begin and many come to an evil end. The mistake was due to a very clever woman making a blunder and not retrieving it.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
