

Star Trek: Logs Seven and Eight

SPACE. THE FINAL FRONTIER . . . These are the voyages of the Starship Enterprise. Celebrate Star Treks thirtieth anniversary with the original mission logs chronicling some of the crews most bizarre missions and strangest encounters with alien races across the galaxy . . . where no man has gone before. THE COUNTER-CLOCK INCIDENT The Enterprises first captain, Commodore Robert April, is aboard the starship one last time enroute to his retirement ceremonies. On the way, Kirk attempts to save an alien ship headed straight for the Beta Niobe Nova. Instead, the Enterprise plunges through the heart of the nova and into an alternate universe where everything runs . . . backwards. Day is night, stars are black not white, and time flows into the past as people get younger with every breath they take. THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER When the Enterprise is sent to investigate a missing starship near Lactran VII, Kirk beams down to discover the Lactrans are giant, highly intelligent slugs, who admire humans for one reason: they make lovely pets. The situation appears hopeless when the landing party is locked up as exhibits in the planets zoo. Amazingly, Spock manages to convince the Lactrans that humans are not dumb animals and they agree to let the crew go--on one condition. Kirk and company must become interstellar big game hunters and capture the powerful, ferocious jawanda on a remote planet.
