

Stella X - Travelling Light

It is the 24th century, and an old-style holiday camp takes tourists back to mid twentieth-century holiday camps. Meanwhile a couple glimpse a mysterious light coming to land in a field some way from the village. Investigating, they find a curious alien container. Before long there is trouble around the camp. Disappearances ensue, a ghostly figure is seen along the seafront and an ancient unearthly object has materialised somewhere nearby. Only cosmic nomad Stella and her human sidekicks can save the holiday-makers from being taken to....where?
