

Top Ten Short Stories: Supernatural (Annotated)

Weird tales, mysticism, horror, the occult, and strange fairy-tales... This collection gathers the best short stories dealing with the supernatural, written by the worlds greatest writers: - Oh, Whistle, and Ill Come to You My Lad: An ancient relic is unearthed on a deserted beach. Its finder makes the mistake of using it, and the consequences are horrible. - The Man Whom the Trees Loved: A painter has an uncanny understanding of nature. Its like he sees the souls of trees. But when nature becomes aware of the man, anything might happen... - The Amputated Arms: A ridiculous case of missing arms turns into a harrowing night at a graveyard. The dead dont like to be tampered with. - The Monkeys Paw: Be careful what you wish for. Especially if death is involved. - The Horla: How can you fight an enemy you cant see? - The Bottle Imp: The strange bottle is a blessing, but it can also be a curse of eternal suffering. It is just a matter of timing... - The Shadow and the Flash: Two rivals, two ambitions, two incredible inventions pitted against each other. - The Story of Mimi-Nashi-Hoichi: A blind bard is invited to sing in a noble mansion, but nothing is what it seems, and the old legends are very much alive. - The Three Hermits: Faith can produce miracles, as this beautiful story teaches us. - The Door in the Wall: The business of life makes us forget about the magic of childhood, but every now and then, the door will appear...
