

The Green Bird: a modern full length stage play adaptation of Carlo Gozzis commedia dellarte classic

Performance rights for this play are controlled exclusively by Playscripts, Inc. Its been years since King Tartaglia went on a quest for three magical oranges and found his Queen Ninetta. But when war breaks out with a neighboring kingdom, enemies from the past seize the throne and execute a cruel revenge on the lovers. With the King lost on the battlefield, the Queen buried alive, the royal heirs presumed dead and the kingdom itself in ruins, it all looks pretty darn bleak for a comedy. Luckily, theres magic and mayhem aplenty in this wild fairy tale to guide everyone on the chaotic path back to happily ever after. With curses, clowns, demons, a talking statue thats rapidly losing control of the story hes narrating and yet another quest for a bit of enchanted fruit, this aint your grandmas commedia dellarte. When no ones worthy of the title of hero, its up to twins Renzo and Barbarina to unravel the mystery of The Green Bird in time to save everyone from themselves.
