

Restitution (Haunted Series Book 17)

Restitution: The restoration of something lost or stolen to its proper owner.

Recompense for injury or loss.

The restoration of something to its original state.* Agent Whitney Martins PERT (Paranormal Entity Research Team) has gone missing in western Illinois. Tom Braverman and PEEPs have been called in to assist in the recovery operation. They are pitted against a ghost so powerful, that he can manipulate both time and people. Within hours of their arrival, Audrey and Murphy disappear. Have they too fallen under the influence of the ghost? Are they part of the restitution the ghost wants so desperately to have? With every situation, there is a resolution, but with every crime, there is a restitution that must be made. A memory vault containing Mias missing five years opens, and with it comes the recollection of crimes for which she finds herself accountable. She seeks the advice of a trusted friend, and together, they must stand before the demon court. Mia has endured the changes brought upon her by her unstable genes. Can she be restored to what she once was, or will she be denied her restitution? Come and join Mia, Murphy and PEEPs in the 17th Haunted Series novel. They've been waiting for you.
