

Portrait of Dorian Gray (Chinese Edition)

This book is the representative aestheticism work of Oscar Wilde, a 19th century writer. In this story, the leading character Dorian Gray found his own amazing beauty from his portrait in a size of a real human painted by Howard, a famous painter. He hoped that his eyebrow could be kept forever and the portrait could bear his burden of age and soul. To his surprise, his wish came true, from then on, he began to squander his evils, in the end, he was dead because of his portrait unexpectedly. With colorful words, this book bears sound meaning.
