

A Sean Casey Mystery The Drag Queen Murders

A detective is hired to find a missing person. A body is found in Rock Creek Park in Washington D.C. When a second body is found, the media becomes interested as does the political world of Washington. This action packed quick paced mystery, involving important movers and shakers of the nations capital, will take several twists and turns before being resolved in a dramatic ending. The victims all happen to be drag queens and the detective hired to solve the murders, Sean Casey, is a former SEAL who happens to be gay. As the plot evolves, the reader comes to know Sean as well as the other major characters of the novel. This is the first book in the Sean Casey Mystery series.
