Copyright 1952, hardcover, 249 pages, with decorated endpapers showing figures through the ages. SYNOPSIS: Ishmael, having little money, decided to become a sailor on a whaling ship. His best friend, Queequeg, was an Indian who could toss a man in the air, one of which was later swept overboard and had to be rescued by Queequeg himself. That was when Ishmael decided to make this strong man his friend. While searching the seas for whales, they hoped to come upon the biggest whale who was a legend of the sea -- named Moby Dick. CONDITION: Light overall surface soiling, edges are worn exposing board, brown specks inside front and back cover. Binding is secure.
