

Mystery: Crime Pays: (A Mystery Suspense Thriller series of suspense mystery books and crime thrillers mystery) : Girl on the run Thriller series

Stacy Crawford had never thought that she would get a chance to work at a big company like Stellar Pharmaceuticals and that too under Professor Cummings. Her happiness didn't last long as the Professor went missing, and she was the last person to meet him. Everyone wants something out of his disappearance - the cops want to know what he was doing that resulted in his kidnap. His rivals want to know what work he was doing in the guise of helping Stellar Pharma with the drug development program. And, the person of interest is Stacy as she was the last one to see the Professor. When the cops questioned her, she sensed that they were working for someone too. She ran away from Pine Hill to avoid them, but she didn't know that there were multiple parties to the Professor's work, some beyond the town. Every person that she met had some agenda, and she didn't know whom to trust. She had to run for her life while trying to find clues about the Professor's disappearance. Will she be able to get away from the cops? Will she be able to find what happened to the Professor? And, above all, will she come to know what was the Professor doing at Stellar Pharmaceuticals that led to everything?
